

Curriculum Vitae of Francesco Failla

francesco.failla@unicampania.it - francesco.failla@diocesidicaltagirone.it

Francesco Failla is director of the “Mario and Luigi Sturzo” Library and of the Historical Archives of the Diocese of Caltagirone, scholar in Modern History at the University of Catania – Department of Humanities, member of the National Council of the Cultural Heritage Office Ecclesiastics and the Buildings of Worship of the Italian Episcopal Conference and former national vice-president of the Italian Ecclesiastical Librarians Association ABEI (2013-2023).

He is a doctoral student in History and Transmission of Cultural Heritage - University of Campania (XXXVII Cycle). Research topic: "Government, events and powers of the Sicilian Province of the Society of Jesus in the Epistolae Generalium and Historia series of the Archivum Romanum Societatis Iesu".

He is a member of the scientific committee of the «Storie e Visioni» series for Edizioni di Storia e Letteratura, a member of the scientific committee of the «Fede, Arte e Tradizioni» series for Bonferraro Editore and a member of the editorial committee of «MO.DO. Journal of History, Human Sciences and Cultural Heritage».