Symposium Peregrinum XI - 2024

History-Changing Prophecies: Prophecy and Oracles that Did or Would Have Changed History – Real, Fictitious, and Fiction

Prophecy in its multifaceted aspects will be the topic of the 2024 Symposium. In the ancient Greek and Roman world prophecies influenced the course of history or failed to be influential and, even in this case, consequences ensued, at least in historical and political discourses. Understanding, misunderstanding, or not believing prophecy recurs as a theme in many famous literary and historical accounts. We are going to hear presentations on prophecies that changed the story (mythological or literary) if fictional or history if it was real. This year we will have participants from Italy (12), USA (6), Belgium (2), Canada (2), China (2), Czech Republic (2), France (4), Germany (2), Greece and Cyprus (2) Hungary (2), Poland (4), Romania, Spain.
